INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholder of iDaytrade, Inc.
d/b/a BrokerageSelect

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of iDaytrade, Inc., d/b/a BrokerageSelect as of December 31, 2001. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of iDaytrade, Inc., d/b/a BrokerageSelect as of December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2001

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION

iDaytrade, Inc., d/b/a BrokerageSelect, (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company engages in a customer commission business and introduces all of its customers to a clearing broker pursuant to a fully disclosed clearing agreement.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Commission Income

Commission income and related expenses are recorded on a trade date basis.

Income Taxes

The Company is recognized as an S-corporation for Federal and State corporate tax purposes, and as such, the shareholder is individually liable for Federal and State income tax payments. The Company is subject to a New York State surcharge tax and a New York City corporate tax.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 3 - DEPOSIT AND RECEIVABLE FROM CLEARING BROKER

The Company introduces its customer transactions to a clearing broker with whom it has a correspondent relationship for clearance and depository services in accordance with the terms of a clearance agreement. In connection therewith, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain as a result of the failure of the Company's customers to satisfy their obligations in connection with their securities transactions. As of December 31, 2001, customer obligations to the clearing broker were collateralized by securities with a market value in excess of the obligations. The Company is also required to maintain $25,000 on deposit with its clearing broker.

In the normal course of business, the Company's customers may sell securities short. Subsequent market fluctuations may require the clearing broker to obtain additional collateral from the Company's customers. It is the policy of the clearing broker to value the short positions daily and to obtain additional deposits where deemed appropriate.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

As a registered broker-dealer and member of the National Association of Security Dealers, Inc., the Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, of 12-1/2% of its aggregate indebtedness during the first year of operations, or $5000, whichever is greater. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but as of December 31, 2001, the Company had net capital of $15,438, which exceeded its minimum requirement by $10,438.

NOTE 5 - LIQUIDITY

The Company in its start-up stage has sustained a loss. However, management believes expenses have stabilized and forecasts a positive cash flow. In the event that additional capital is required, the principal shareholder is committed to provide such capital to fund the Company's current operations through December 31, 2001.
